

To be published on Friday 18th of August, 2006

Dubai Municipality wins the international trophy in Geographical Information Systems

Dubai Municipality won lately the international trophy in Geographical Information Systems given by ESRI institution located at Santiago City in the state of California.

The trophy was delivered in the twenty sixth conference of the institution organized by Geographical Information Systems users in Santiago City in the state of California.

ESRI institution is one of the pioneer companies in developing programs and systems of geographical information in the world; also it offers this trophy to organizations and agencies that exert efforts and abide by international standards when it comes to using the Geographical Information Systems technique, however winners are selected to be awarded this trophy among 150 thousand organization in the world.

Engineer Mohamad Al Zafine, Head of the Geographical Information Systems in Dubai Municipality, that the ESRI trophy called

Achievement Trophy and related to the geographical systems value the achievements accomplished by the mentioned organizations, noting that winners are chosen according to benefits realized in local communities and the positive impact done in it by making the Geographical Information Systems opportunities available to the public using it.